

Peace for All

—————

A Message from Gaza to the World

A Timeless Story of Peace, Identity, and Resilience

More Than a Design

This is not just a visual piece. It is a message—written long ago... and still waiting to be heard.

From Gaza to the world, a timeless call for peace.

Every line, every symbol, every color carries a story older than conflict—and stronger than silence.

An Old Letter

The design is shaped like an old handwritten letter, a symbol that this message is not new, not temporary, and has always existed.

- Is not new
- Is not temporary
- Has always existed

Peace is not a trend.
It is a forgotten truth.

The Resilient Font

Classic, serif, enduring.
Represents strength — built to last through generations.

Stability and continuity — a voice that does not waver, does not fade.

It does not shout.
It stands.

Unity of Religions

The mosque and the church stand together.

A reflection of coexistence and shared humanity.

- Coexistence
- Shared humanity
- Spiritual harmony

Peace lives in connection.

The Olive Tree

A symbol of resilience — rooted deep in the earth, enduring through every storm and season.

Deep roots that hold memory, identity, and the quiet strength of generations past.

Continuity — because peace is not a moment. It is something that grows.

Gaza's Identity

Memory — Old Gaza buildings carry the stories of generations past, etched in stone and silence.

Heritage — Every arch, every alley is a testament to a civilization that endures beyond time.

Peace belongs to real lives — not to headlines, but to the people who call this land home.

Cultural Beauty

Inspired by Gaza embroidery — beauty in hardship, a tradition woven through generations.

Identity & quiet strength — each stitch carries the memory of a people and a place.

Even in pain, life blooms — resilience expressed through color, pattern, and art.

Peace for All

From Gaza to the world...

A message carried through time.
Peace for All.
